

The Great Irish Famine Commemoration Committee
Invite you to our second event
To be held at History House, headquarters of the Royal Australian Historical Society 133 Macquarie Street, Sydney on 6 April 2018 at 6pm

This event is to raise funds for our Refugee Scholarship to supports a student at Western Sydney University who arrived to Australia as a refugee

We are very excited to have visiting Irish novelist, Evelyn Conlon, talk to us about her novel Not the Same Sky which she based on the experiences of a Famine workhouse emigrant girl. The book was launched at the International Famine Commemoration hosted by us in Sydney in 2013 and this is a wonderful chance to hear what inspired her to write this novel

Tickets are $40 each and include Evelyn's talk, a light supper and drinks.

Purchase your tickets via the following link https://fundraiser_evelyn_conlon.eventbrite.com.au

Or you can buy a ticket at the door on the night if there are any still available

If you are unable to make the event you can still donate via this link

<https://give.westernsydney.edu.au/gifcscholarship>